Third Annual Inhibitors to Factor VIII:
Translating the Bench to the Bedside
October 23, 2017 | Columbus, Ohio

Please join us for an educational symposium focused on hemophilia providers along with basic/translational scientists with interest in protein therapeutics, immunology, statistics and genetics with a special interest in Hemophilia. This educational program will be organized and coordinated by the Nationwide Children's Hospital Pediatric Hematology Division and its affiliated institution, The Ohio State University School of Medicine.

Hosted by
Amy Dunn, MD, Nationwide Children's Hospital

Event Date
Monday, October 23, 2017

Hotel Accommodations
Hilton Columbus Downtown
401 North High Street | Columbus, OH 43215
Tel: (614) 384-8600 | HiltonColumbusDowntown.com

Meeting Location
The Education Institute at Nationwide Children's Hospital
700 Children's Drive | Columbus, OH 43205
Tel: (614) 355-0676 | NationwideChildrens.org

Registration Information
Registration is open to hemophilia providers, and covers all course materials, group meals and breaks. All Industry Participants and Sponsor Representatives should contact Connie Hieatt for registration information.

Scholarships are available for participants and cover transportation and 1 night hotel accommodations.

Coming soon… To apply for this scholarship, please visit hemophiliaconferences.nationwidechildrens.org.

Your registration will not be confirmed and travel arrangements booked until your scholarship application is approved by the directors of the event.

Registration is limited and is on a first come, first serve basis.

The first function begins with an optional Welcome Reception and Dinner on Sunday, October 22, at 6:30 p.m. The last function ends at 4:10 pm on Monday, October 23. A complete tentative agenda may be found on the Agenda tab of symposium website, hemophiliaconferences.nationwidechildrens.org.

If you have any questions, please contact Connie Hieatt (614) 722-3620 or email: Inhibitors@NationwideChildrens.org.